

Company Overview

Premiere International is owned and operated by Premiere Van Lines Inc., a Coast to Coast Van Lines specializing in The Art of Moving™. As with all of our divisions right across Canada, customer service is a National and Global priority for us. Our esteemed Memberships ensure that your prize possessions are handled by Qualified, Professional Movers only. We'll help you feel at home anywhere in the world.

Premiere Business Class

Premiere International is proud to have Branches Coast to Coast across Canada to serve our Corporate Clients Worldwide. Whether your employees are moving on a long term basis or a shorter assignment, our dedicated Relocation Consultants will adhere to your schedule and meet your specific requirements on budget while providing the professional service you are accustomed to.

The Art of Planning:

A dedicated Relocation Consultant will be happy to provide you with a no obligation estimate after we conduct an in-home survey to assess your employee's relocation requirements. Knowing exactly what your corporate requirements are upfront will help us provide you with the best relocation method at the best price.

The Art of Packing:

International relocations require specialized packing & loading. Our Qualified Packers are specifically trained for International packing, using the highest quality packing materials as well as offering custom crating. The better we help your employees organize can only help them be settled and productive as soon as possible.

The Art of Administration:

We can professionally navigate through all of the necessary documents that your employee and Corporation require for whichever country that you are relocating them to. Some Countries are trickier than others and we will ensure that you have all appropriate documentation along the way. Again, the better we are able to help organize your employee's relocation, the faster they are settled and productive for you.

The Art of Moving™:

From picking up your employees possessions and shipping it via air or water, our dedication to your Premiere Service Class continues with a hand-selected partner near your employee's new home. Because of our esteemed Memberships worldwide, we partner with like-minded professionals to continue providing the highest level of service until your employee is safely into their new home.
