

Privacy Policy

Client Acknowledgement Form

Premiere Van Lines and its affiliates, comply fully with the Personal Protection and Electronic Document Act (P.I.P.E.D.A.) which was implemented on January 1, 2001.

Premiere Van Lines and its affiliates respect our shipper's right to privacy and take care to ensure all the personal information provided to us is handled and stored in a confidential manner.

Premiere Van Lines and its affiliates need to obtain certain personal information when preparing moving proposals, monitoring/performing relocations and during repair/settlement of claims.

Premiere Van Lines will also use personal information for services directly related to your move which are contracted out to a third party (i.e. appliance service, vehicle hauling). All third party service providers are given only information that is needed for them to complete the service that they are contracted to perform. We will also use information as needed should you wish to participate in any of our "value-added" loyalty programs and for follow-up contacts.

All personal information collected is processed and stored in a secure, confidential database and is shared only on a "need to know" basis.

Our web site collects no personal information other than when an individual elects to use our "on-line estimate service". If you elect to use that service, we will assume your implied consent to make that information available for the purposes listed within our Privacy Policy.

You have the right to request that your personal information not be used for any of the aforementioned purposes and you may, at any time, enquire as to what information we currently do have.

Any questions or complaints about our Privacy Policy can be directed to our office.
